AAC

Resource	Source and Description
AAC Comparison Grid	www.setbc.org/Download/LearningCentre/Communication/aac_2005.pdf
	A features comparison grid of the latest AAC devices. Updated periodically.
AAC Institute	www.aacinstitute.org
	Non-profit organization dedicated to the most effective methods of AAC worldwide. (Katya Hill)
AAC Intervention	http://aacintervention.com
	Ideas and information for AAC implementation. (Julie Maro & Caroline Musselwhite)
AAC Resources for Families	www.connsensebulletin.com
	Ideas for families for beginning accessibility; websites; resources; etc.
AAC-RERC	www.aac-rerc.com
	Site directing users to webcasts, research, publications, medicare funding for AAC, etc.
ABLEDATA: National Institute on Disability & Rehabilitation Research	www.abledata.com
	Provides objective information about assistive technology products / rehabilitation equipment.
ACE Center	www.ace-center.org
	Communication Aids Review documents for over 100 communication aids in the UK.
Alliance for Technology Access	www.ataccess.org
	An alliance of parents, providers, consumers, consultants, etc.
Augmentative Communication, Inc.	www.augcominc.com
	Publisher of resources for professionals and individuals with complex communication needs.
Barkley (Hattie B. Munroe) Memorial Augmentative & Alternative Communication Centers	http://aac.unl.edu
	Strategies to assist people with severe communication disabilities to participate in their environment.
CALL Centre (Communication Aids for Language and Learning)	http://callcentre.educatio.ed.ac.uk
	Provides expertise in technology for children with speech, communication and / or writing difficulties.

AAC

Callier Center for Communication Disorders	www.callier.utdallas.edu/ACT/res.html
	Resources and downloads for AAC / literacy from the University of Texas at Dallas.
Closing the Gap Solutions	www.closingthegap/ctgz/solutions
	An online subscription for AAC and other assistive technology ($50-$75 per year).
Communication Displays for Engineered Preschool	www.mayer-johnson.com
	Materials for scripted communication boards. (Carol Gossens', Sharon Sapp Crain & Pamela Elder)
Communication Matrix Especially for Parents	www.designtolearncom
	Book lists steps in development of communication. (Charity Rowland)
CONNSENSE	www.connsensebulletin.com/aacresources.pdf
	Articles in the online newsletter highlighting the latest in AAC for teams.
Creative Communicating	www.creativecommunicating.com/links.htm
	Links to websites for early communication topics.
Engineering the Preschool Environment for Interactive Symbolic Communication	www.mayer-johnson.com
	Materials for scripted communication boards. (Carol Gossens', Sharon Sapp Crain & Pamela Elder)
Engineering Training Environments for Interactive Augmentative Communi-cation Strategies for Adolescents & Adults Who are Moderately / Severely Developmentally Delayed	www.mayer-johnson.com
	Materials for scripted communication boards. (Carol Gossens' & Pamela Elder)
Every Move Counts: Sensory Based Communication Techniques	Therapy Skill Builders (Psychological Corp.); 555 Academic Court; San Antonio TX 78204-2498
	Assessment strategy based on development of interaction / communication in children with severe challenges. (Jane Edgar Korsten, Dixie K. Dunn, Teresa Vernon Foss & Mary Kay Francke)
Feiner Supply	www.feinersupply.com
	Source of reasonably priced Velcro.

AAC

First Things First—Early Communication for the Pre-Symbolic Child with Severe Disabilities	www.designtolearn.com
	Great illustrations for very early and developing communication. (Charity Rowland & Philip Scheigert)
Food & Drink Communication Symbols	http://tell.fll.purdue.edu/JapanProj/FLClipart/Nounsfood&drink.html
	Line drawing communication symbols—32 symbols in all. Free!
GPAT Video Clips—Valdosta State University	http://coefaculty.valdosta.edu/spe/ATRB/video_tips.htm
	Training clips: devices, documentation, consideration, evaluation, resources, etc. Video also signed.
Handbook of Adaptive Switches & Augmentative Communication Devices	Academic Software; 3504 Tates Creek Road; Lexington KY 40517-2601
	Information sheets on a wide variety of switches and AAC devices. (Cindy George & Warren Lacefield)
Hands on Learning at Home	www.designtolearn.com
	Checklist for situational cognitive and social skills. (Charity Rowland)
Imagine Symbols	www.imaginesymbols.com
	Non-commercial use symbols for symbol readers.
Introduction to Augmentative & Alternative Communication	www.asha.org/public/speech/disorders/augmentative-and-alternative.htm
	Introduction useful with all disabilities. (ASHA)
ISAAC—International Society for Augmentative & Alternative Communicaiton	www.isaac-online.org
	Mission of ISAAC is to improve the life of every child & adult with speech difficulties.
Linda Burkhart	www.lburkhart.com
	Simple AAC information handouts and information.
Making Connections	www.ablenetinc.com
	Book of many ideas for social interaction & participation with simple AAC. (Peggy Locke & Jackie Levin)
Making Sure Your Child Can	www.ohsu.edu/selfdetermination

AAC

Communicate with People Outside Your Home	Profiles & vocabulary lists with ideas for partnered communication. (Charity Rowland, Philip Schweigert, & Alexandra Dorinson)
Making Visual Supports Work in the Home and Community	Autism Asperger Publishing Co.; PO Box 23173; Shawnee Mission KS 66283-0173
	Overview of visual supports, how to make them & how to evaluate their effectiveness. (Jennifer Sayner & Brenda Smith Myles)
Medicare Funding of AAC Devices	www.aac-rerc.com
	Policies & procedures for funding through Medicare.
Meeting the Communication Needs of Students Who Use Alternative Communication Systems	www.oshu.edu/selfdetermination
	Information for transitioning to new settings for children who cannot use speech. (Charity Rowland, Philip Schweigert, & Alexandra Dorinson)
Noisy Stories	www.mayer-johnson.com
	Interactive strategies for pre-reading skills and sound awareness (Joan Rivard & Jessica Rivard)
Quick & Easy Ideas & Materials to Help the Nonverbal Child "Talk" at Home	www.mayer-johnson.com
	Quick and easy ideas for helping families set up their home to assist communication. (Carolyn Rouse & Katera Murphy)
Quick & Easy Ideas for Using Class-room Materials to Teach Academics to Nonverbal Children & More!	www.mayer-johnson.com
	Quick and easy ideas for individual communication boards that can become classroom communication boards. (Carolyn Rouse & Katera Murphy)
Simplified Technology for Children with Disabilities	www.2.edc.org/NCIP/library/ec/Burkhart.htm
	General philosophy behind AAC for young children.
Symbol World	www.symbolworld.org
	Learning stories and other resources for symbol readers.
Tangible Symbol Systems—2nd Edition: Making the Right to Communicate a	www.designtolearn.com
	Great illustrations and ideas. (Charity Rowland & Philip SChweigert)

AAC

Reality for Individuals with Severe Disabilities.
Technology and Language Center, Inc.—TALC	www.technologyandlanguage.com
	Information, templates, etc. regarding AAC.
Visual Strategies for Improving Communication: Practical Supports for Home & School	www.mayer-johnson.com
	Illustrated ideas & strategies for communication in the classroom using visuals. (Linda Hodgdon)
YAACK: AAC Connecting Young Kids	http://aac.unl.edu:16080/yaack/toc.html
	Information on getting started with AAC; choosing an AAC system; teaching AAC; etc.